

iPlanta Working Group 2 Meeting.

Tues 15th Oct 2019

RLP AgroScience, AlPlanta - Institute for Plant Research, Neustadt a.d. Weinstr., Germany

10.30 – 12.30 iPlanta / WG2 planning meeting for Conference in February 2020, Antalya, Turkey

All welcome to participate plus Bruno Mezzetti, Jeremy Sweet and other Working Group leaders etc via Skype

12.30 – 13.45 Lunch

13.45 – 14.00 Brief Introduction to iPlanta and WG2 activities

Huw Jones

14.00 – 14.30 HIGS and SIGS approaches to control fungal diseases in grapevine

Sabbadini S.¹, Capriotti L.¹, Mehari Z.², Baraldi E.², Mezzetti B.^{1*}

1. Dipartimento di Scienze Agrarie, Alimentari ed Ambientali, Università Politecnica delle Marche, Ancona, Italy.
2. University of Bologna, DISTAL (Department of Food and Agricultural Science), Italy.

14.30 – 15.00 Double-stranded RNAs as potential curative tool against ESCA disease

Luca Nerva^{1,2} & Walter Chitarra^{1,2}

1. CREA – Research Centre for Viticulture and Enology, Via XXVIII Aprile 26, 31015 Conegliano (TV), Italy
2. CNR – Institute for Sustainable Plant Protection, Strada delle Cacce 73, 10135 Torino (TO), Italy

15.00 – 15.30 Towards the use of a double stranded RNA-based vaccine formulation against Tomato spotted wilt virus

Noris E¹, Tabein², Behjatnia SAA², Accotto GP¹, Vaira AM¹, Miozzi L¹

1. Institute for Sustainable Plant Protection, National Research Council of Italy, Torino, Italy
2. Plant Virology Research Center, College of Agriculture, Shiraz University, Shiraz, Iran

15.30 – 16.00 Coffee break

16.00 – 17.15 Trainees' Roundtable.

All welcome to participate but the focus is on Training School trainees to introduce themselves and spend 10 min describing their current work and how they are using (or plan to use) RNAi.